

Brain Tumour Research

Together we will find a cure

Volunteer Collection Box Champion – Role Description

Location:

In your area

Time Commitment:

2-3 hours every 8-12 weeks or more if desired

Role Purpose:

To help raise awareness and money for Brain Tumour Research to fund more vital research to find a cure, by regularly collecting money raised at static collection sites within an agreed geographical area.

Role Description:

- Recruit, support and manage local businesses in your area to host a static collection box on their premises within an agreed area
- Collect, count and bank money from static collection boxes on a regular basis
- Adhere to banking and recording regulations as laid out by Brain Tumour Research

Volunteer Specification:

- Friendly, outgoing and reliable
- Good eye for detail, form filling etc
- Happy and able to travel within your agreed area

Induction and Training:

- Full induction with your local Community Fundraising Manager
- Opportunity to visit one of our Centres of Excellence to find out how the money you help raise is spent
- Further training and information opportunities as they arise

For further information, please contact us on supportercare@braintumourresearch.org or call us 01908 867200.

